

Abstract

Title: Coach personality

Objectives: The objective of this bachelor's degree essay is to collect information about the types and the roles of the coach, to analyze his behaviour, to find manners during the match and the training. To find properties and a behaviour of the coach, which are impressing for the football players.

Methods: I used the method of questionnairing and the method of analyze contests. Questionnairing was executed by my own questionnaire with 16 questions.

Results: The results of my questionnairing are the answers to my questions, which are concerning the training of football players. I can offer interesting subjects to thinking and the progress of solving of individual situations.

Keywords: coach, team, role, training, behaviour